DAY 1 SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

PORTLAND, OR

Today we will transfer to the airport for our flight to Portland, OR. Upon arrival we'll embark on a panoramic city tour of the "City of Roses" on the way to our hotel. After settling into the Holiday Inn Portland - Columbia Riverfront, the remainder of the day is yours to explore Portland and the neighboring Vancouver just across the Columbia River. There's Lewis and Clark history, an abundance of quirky shops, excellent restaurants, and a growing craft brew scene. Whether you are interested in delving into history, enjoying the outdoors, or indulging in delicious cuisine, the area has something for everyone!

Note: The airport location and airline will be confirmed nine months before departure.

DAY 2 MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 2

PORTLAND, OR

(Breakfast, Dinner)

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast this morning before we walk to the pier to board the American Pride for the next seven nights. This beautiful and authentic paddlewheeler features a serene color palette, luxurious textiles and linens, comfortable furniture, and sophisticated artwork and flourishes. The well-appointed American Pride décor features Western and Native American inspired themes, including influences from the region's celebrated Lewis and Clark Expedition. In the golden age of riverboats, sternwheelers crossed the waterfront while steam whistles and calliopes rang out across the water. With its sparkling rivers, stately evergreens, and mild climate, we will understand why this area was noted as exceptional by explorer Meriwether Lewis! Time will be available to settle into our staterooms before we set sail on the Columbia River with Mount Hood and Mount St. Helens as our backdrop. Over the next week, we will venture along the rivers of the Pacific Northwest through beautiful landscapes that transform from a majestic wall of spruce and pine to rolling hills speckled with vineyards and cherry trees!

DAY 3 TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

ASTORIA, OR

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Surrounded by forests, boasting three rivers, and situated a stone's throw away from the Pacific, Astoria, OR, is a picturesque port city with Victorian-era homes etched into hills overlooking the Columbia River. Astoria is known to be the oldest American settlement west of the Rocky Mountains, inhabited for thousands of years by the Clatsop Tribe. Astoria has a rich history that reflects the many influences the town has had from people and cultures around the world. Many of its current residents are descendants from early settlers, many of whom were Chinese and played a significant role in Astoria's history, especially in the canneries, railroads, and the jetties at the Columbia River. The Garden of Surging Waves is a beautiful park that celebrates and honors Astoria's relationship with China over the years. Join today's hop-on, hop-off tour to explore the Astoria Riverwalk overlooking the Columbia River. The walkway stretches the entire length of the city's waterfront, connecting restaurants and breweries, museums, historic canneries, and docks. Other stops on the tour include Astoria Column, the Heritage Museum where Clatsop County's rich and exciting history is featured, and the Flavel House Museum. An additional complimentary excursion to the Columbia River Maritime Museum is also available. It is the official maritime museum of the state of Oregon.

DAY 4 WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

KALAMA, WA

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

From the new dock at Kalama, WA, two complimentary excursions are available. On the first, enjoy the grand landscape of the Cascade Mountains scenic drive to view the remnants of nearby Mount St. Helens. A local guide will enhance your understanding and share the story of the volcano's 1980 eruption and its impact on the environment and the lives of those in the area. Spectacular views of the pumice plain and blast site will be amazing! Just off the ship dock, enjoy an expansive city park, unique local artwork throughout an impressive adjacent hotel, and an interesting interpretive center. The second complimentary excursion takes you to this new Port of Kalama Interpretive Center which celebrates Kalama's unique place in Pacific Northwest history as a transportation and commercial hub and is designed to replicate a traditional waterfront warehouse of the 1800s. Exhibits track Kalama's first inhabitants, the Cowlitz Tribe, and the settlers that followed over the next hundred years, including renowned Oregon Trail writer Ezra Meeker. Displays illustrate how Kalama's particular landscape gave birth to a booming transportation system, impacting the area both culturally and economically.

DAY 5 THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

THE DALLES, OR

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Known as the end of the Oregon Trail, The Dalles holds a unique place in history as the gateway to the Inland Empire. The Dalles was the jumping-off spot for pioneers, soldiers, gold miners, adventurers, gunslingers, and scallywags who loaded their wagons onto rafts or barges and floated down the Columbia to the mouth of the Willamette River, then upriver to Oregon City. The Barlow Trail was constructed later to permit an overland crossing. The Dalles was also the site of Fort Dalles. Established in 1850 to protect immigrants after the Whitman Massacre, it was the only military post between the Pacific Coast and Wyoming. Two complimentary excursions are available today. The first is to the Columbia River Gorge Interpretive Center which showcases the area's unique history and cultural diversity. From the Native American tribes that inhabited the gorge to the expedition of Lewis and Clark and nineteenth-century loggers, learn of the bountiful life on the gorge as you explore this amazing museum. The second complimentary excursion takes you to Multnomah Falls, the second highest year-round waterfall in the nation. Admire the falls from the Visitor Center or take a short hike to Benson Bridge, one of the most photographed pieces of architecture in Oregon, to feel its misty spray and get a great photo. If you wish to explore The Dalles on your own, the original Wasco County Courthouse Museum, The Dalles Area Chamber of Commerce, the Fort Dalles Museum, the National Neon Sign Museum, and The Dalles City Hall & Fire Museum are great places to explore. The National Neon Museum is a walk through the evolution of light, from the earliest light bulb to the introduction of neon in the United States, while the Fire Museum is filled with information about the area's firefighting history.

DAY 6 FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

RIVER CRUISING

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Behold the beauty of nature as we enjoy a day of scenic river cruising. Picturesque canyon walls and fascinating volcanic formations will keep us guessing as to what lies around the next bend.

DAY 7 SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

RICHLAND, WA

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Richland is located near the confluence of the Yakima and Columbia Rivers, the northernmost point reached by the Lewis and Clark Expedition in 1805. Incorporated in 1910, Richland remained a small agricultural community until the U.S. Army purchased 640 square miles of land during World War II, evicting the 300 residents of Richland as well as those of the now vanished towns of White Bluffs and Hanford. The army turned it into a bedroom community for workers at its Manhattan Project facility who produced plutonium during World War II and the Cold War. Today's included excursion is to the Sacajawea Interpretive Center located at the very place where the Lewis and Clark Expedition camped for two nights, amidst a thriving community of Native Americans. Learn about the activities that took place at the site through interactive exhibits about the Corps of Discovery and Sacajawea, the woman known for helping the Lewis and Clark Expedition team. Stroll the green, tree-shaded grounds, and read the seven story circle installations by Maya Lin.

DAY 8 SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

CLARKSTON, WA

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Nestled at the union of the Snake and Clearwater Rivers, Clarkston was settled in 1862 by Robert Bracken and was officially incorporated in 1902. Before becoming an official town the area was known by various names, including Jawbone Flats, Lewiston, and Concord – after the city in Massachusetts. The name Clarkston honors the legacy of William Clark, of the Lewis and Clark Expedition fame. Directly east across the Snake River is Lewiston, ID, the larger and older of the two towns, named for Meriwether Lewis. The spirit of adventure, picturesque vistas, year-round mild temperatures and a deep history make this scenic inland port a desirable stop to learn the rich cultural heritage of the region and its first people, the legendary Nimiipuu, at the Nez Perce National Historical Park. The Nez Perce County Historical Society Museum Campus also explores Nez Perce history, plus the contributions of Chinese people to the area, life on the river, and wine growing and agriculture in the county. The shops and restaurants of Port Drive and 9th Street and the Lewis and Clark State College Center for Arts & History are also great spots to visit.

HOME

(Breakfast)

Following breakfast we will disembark and transfer to the airport for our flight home.

The purchase of this product is not required in order to purchase any other travel product or service. Your travel retailer might not be licensed to sell travel insurance and will only be able to provide general information about the product. An unlicensed travel retailer may not answer questions about the terms and conditions of the insurance offered and may not evaluate the adequacy of your existing insurance coverage. The products being offered provide insurance coverage that only applies during your covered trip. You may have insurance coverage from other sources that provide similar benefits but may be subject to different restrictions depending upon the coverage. You may wish to compare the terms of the travel policy offered through Travelex with any existing life, health, home, and automobile insurance policies you may have. If you have questions about your coverage under your existing insurance policies, contact your insurer or insurance agent or broker. Travelex Insurance Services, Inc. CA Agency License #0D10209. Travel Insurance is offered on behalf of and under the direction of Travelex Insurance Services. Insurance coverages underwritten by individual member companies of Zurich in North America, including Zurich American Insurance Company (NAIC # 16535).

CANCELLATION: Full refund of all monies is made if cancellation is received in writing to Star Destinations prior to final payment, less the non-refundable $250 and 3% credit card transaction fee (if a credit card is used). A 100% fee is charged if the cancellation occurs between final payment and departure. If the reason for cancellation is due to a medical or other reason that is covered by Travel Protection, you may be eligible for reimbursement for such fees from your Travel Protection Plan provider.

TRAVELERS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS: You must advise Star Destinations, Inc. (SDI) at the time of registration of any disability requiring special attention. SDI will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the special needs of travelers. The Americans with Disabilities Act is applicable only in the U.S., and accommodations outside the U.S. may be more limited. Travelers requiring assistance are required to be accompanied by a companion who is capable of, and totally responsible for, providing the assistance. Neither SDI personnel nor its suppliers may lift or physically assist with travelers' special needs including, but not limited to, walking, dining, or other routine activities. Travelers thinking they may need assistance should call SDI to determine what accommodations may reasonably be provided. Arrangements at an additional cost are the financial responsibility of the traveler.

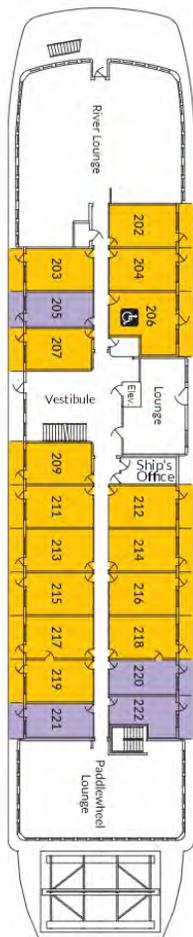

TERMS & CONDITIONS: Star Destinations, Inc. (SDI) acts as an agent for suppliers such as airlines, hotels or activities to provide you with the travel services and accommodations. Although great care is taken in choosing suppliers, we are unable to control them and therefore cannot be held responsible or liable for their acts or omissions. Should a contracted supplier be unable to perform required services, SDI reserves the right to substitute advertised services with similar services. SDI is not responsible for any claims, losses, damages, costs or expenses arising out of injury, accident or death, damage, loss, trip delay or delay of baggage, or other inconvenience resulting from mechanical breakdowns, fire, theft, civil disturbances, government actions, weather, and other factors beyond our control. In the case of a pandemic or worldwide disturbance that interrupts or cancels your planned tour, SDI will do everything possible to retrieve any refundable components of your tour but cannot be held responsible for any non-refundable portions of the tour. In addition, SDI reserves the right to vary the tour price advertised or printed to cover any increase in air fare, volatile fuel prices, government taxes and charges, exchange rate fluctuations, or other tour-related tariffs or newly announced travel costs. In the current travel environment, pricing may be increased due to unexpected requirements for health and safety of tour members. Due to infectious diseases, including COVID-19, destination areas may implement restrictions and requirements that may add additional costs beyond our control. Be aware that any public interaction carries a risk of exposure to infectious diseases. Travelers assume personal risk upon tour registration, and SDI cannot be held responsible in the event of infectious disease exposure. If you request a variation or change to your booking, SDI may choose to accept or reject that request. If accepted, you are responsible for any fees associated with it. If the minimum number of passengers required to operate the tour is not met, SDI reserves the right to cancel the tour.

It is the sole discretion of SDI to refuse transport to any passenger, or require any passenger to leave the tour, if it is reasonably believed that the passenger (1) is dangerous to others or to himself or herself; (2) is engaged in, or is threatening to engage in behavior that may adversely affect the safety, security, enjoyment, or well-being of other passengers, including behavior that is disruptive, verbally or physically abusive, obnoxious, harassing, or obscene; or (3) has failed or refused to follow SDI's rules and procedures or the instructions of its representatives. In the event a passenger is removed, such passenger may be left at any location without any liability to SDI or its representatives. SDI shall not be required to refund any portion of the price paid by any passenger who is removed, nor shall SDI be responsible for any further expenses incurred by the passenger. SDI shall be entitled to recover from the passenger any costs or expenses incurred by SDI or its representatives in the removal of the passenger or the exercise or enforcement of this clause.
